months ago, and he has not been returned to his country. This boy was brought up on my station, and was always a well behaved and useful lad; and as he got his sentence for a very trifling offence it seems a pity that he should not be sent back. I inquired about the boy from some of the police in Fremantle, who told me they thought he had been sent out to the police station at Mandurah.

I should feel much obliged if you would kindly have the
